Our Centres

Samarth-Jyoti operates in four states with six centres headquarter at Naharpur, Manesar, Haryana. Each state is having a competent team to ensure programme effectiveness with proper monitoring mechanism. Our overall approach is to encourage, educate and empower people in need.

1. Haryana

A. Samarth-Jyoti, Naharpur

Samarth-Jyoti, Naharpur is a head quarter located in the heart of the village, Naharpur, Manesar, Haryana. It offers different community based programmes to engage and empower people. Currently Vocational Training, Primary School and Remedial Classes are some key programmes. Centre also extends its support in the overall functioning of Samarth-Jyoti programs across India

- Primary School – We offer quality and value based education to rural kids to promote overall development. School is equipped with all required resources with efficient teachers to impart learning. Teachers acknowledge and encourage students for their consistent performance and provide different exposure for development.

- Vocational Training Program – It's a self-employment program for adolescent and women in need to empower and lead better life. Currently we offer Beauty Culture and Cutting & tailoring programs recognized by ministry of HRD.

- IT Literacy Programme (Basic) - This is a unique computer programme for community people to build IT skills supporting digital India campaign. This programme provides learning opportunity for the students through practical training. This program is recognized by ministry of HRD.

- Remedial Class - It's a need based programme tailored to bridge academic gap of government school students. It focuses on minimum learning level through child centric approach
